Topic: How School Fosters Human Excellence through Conscience – 3 Ways

The extravaganza of Class XI D unfolded in the drizzly breezy weather on 9th July 2024 with splendour and excitement. The event started with an invocation of reciting divine Gayatri Mantra followed by the DAV Gaan. Forging then, the multilingual artists of the class presented a rolling of red carpet for the day's event.

With the theme of the assembly being 'Inside Out', the show was put up to exhibit how one's inner conscience has got a control over one's life and deeds. Further the programme emphasized on various emotions that lead one to decide on following good or evil.

The Skit Saga presented how the conscience of the protagonist twisted and turned during various scenarios and at last how she was able to control her inner emotions through her strong will.

'Sway your Souls' was an exemplary dance performance that kept everyone grooving. The dance performance resolved the inner conflict of the emotions.

To wrap up the event, 'A Tinge of Trend' was shown as a battle between good and bad conscience.

As a means of expressing colossal gratitude, the Token of Credit was crafted through the Seinnandri Arithal Athigaram couplets of Thirukkural. Parachutes were made and sent to the audience with a lucky draw.

The event concluded with National Anthem followed by the Shanti Paat.
